CAROLYNN PURPURA

Hannah Abrams has been my real estate broker on two condo purchases, one condo sale, and one rental property. She is incredibly talented, insightful and reliable. I have and will continue to use and recommend her to other people looking for assistance in the real estate market. Even during the highly stressful sale of my condo, Hannah was able to keep the deal together and keep both parties happy and excited about the transaction by listening to and addressing all of our concerns regardless of the impact on her time. She really goes the extra mile and treats each person and transaction as though they are each her priority. She is not only great at what she does, she is a complete pleasure to work with on either side of a real estate deal.

Yours truly,

Carolyn Purpura
